Message from Rev'd Adam Wells

Dear Friends,

Recently, I found myself going to Matthew 5.44 as I wondered what to pray for. In the middle, and muddle, of the international events that are taking place at this time, the continued wars in different parts of the world, with all the inevitable suffering that goes with them, Jesus says 'But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.'

Verse 44 is part of Jesus' teaching in the Sermon on the Mount. It needs to be read alongside the rest of that teaching, not least Matthew 5.38-39 'You have heard that it was said, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." But I say to you, Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also;'

Verses 38 and 39 model a type of interpersonal behaviour where we do not retaliate when struck, but rather endure. I am sure you have noticed that sometimes if we do not react to someone, they will go away.

It would seem hard to apply this to the nations of the world, and their interrelationships, and their responses to what other nations do or plan.

Verse 44 raises some issues. Who are our enemies? And how should we love them in Jesus' name? Who, if anyone, is persecuting us? The word for love used in the passage is 'agape', the love that looks to the best interests of others and even puts their needs first. The love that Jesus exhibits when he dies on the cross for the sins of the world.

I am sure that we have all been praying for peace and for justice, but in addition I want to pray for an end to the cycle of revenge, 'you hit me and I hit you back', that seems to form so many of the interactions in today's world.

This is surely in the best interests of all of us.

Best wishes and prayers

Adam
